

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:

Jay Hamilton-Roth
Many Good Ideas
(415) 389-8920
j@ManyGoodIdeas.com
www.ManyGoodIdeas.com

2 Videographers Rewarded For Honoring 2 Local Marin Legends

Mill Valley, CA, November 27, 2009 – Mozart Kaufman (1917-2006) owned Kaufman's department stores in San Rafael and San Anselmo (during 1950s-1980s). He inspired local videographer/producer S. Kramer Herzog to create a documentary (I Remember Momie) honoring his family friend. The video, hosted by KTVU's Pam Cook, recently won the 2009 WAVE Programming by/for Seniors (Community Producer) award.

Cynthia Glinka (of Larkspur) has been teaching social dance and choreography to people of all ages for years (including her successful Manners in Motion® program). Her passion for connecting two people “in motion” sparked Jay Hamilton-Roth to create an episode of his Public Access TV series (Business With Passion) about Cynthia. Jay's entry was a finalist for Documentary Profile (Community Producer).

The Alliance for Community Media's WAVE (Western Access Video Excellence) awards highlight outstanding local programs shown on the public, educational, and government access channels. This year there were 330 entries, from six states (Hawaii, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, and Colorado) and 30 different media centers.

Both videos were aired with the help of CMC (Community Media Center of Marin), the recently opened public access TV resource in San Rafael.

###

About Many Good Ideas: A creative/marketing/strategy consultancy that helps small businesses innovate, design, and implement successful marketing strategies worldwide. For additional information on Business With Passion, or to schedule an interview with Jay Hamilton-Roth, please call (415) 389-8920 or e-mail him at j@ManyGoodIdeas.com

About S. Kramer Herzog: Has filmed extensively all around Marin including inside the California State Prison at San Quentin. For additional information, please call (415) 453-6783 or e-mail him at: videozog@aol.com